Opening Prayer (in unison)

Come, Holy Spirit, come. Enliven your people again. We need your warmth, for fear and distrust are fraying the fabric of human society. We need your guidance, for old ways are hard to give up and new ways are hard to define.

Come, Holy Spirit. We need your comfort, for sadness wraps many of us in unending grief. We need your power, for greed and violence haunt every level of society and lurk in the corners of our souls.

Come, Holy Spirit. We need your courage to live as people of peace in an angry and hurried world. We need your love to bind up the wounded, lift up the poor and feed the hungry. Come, Holy Spirit, come. Amen.

Anthem – “Surely the Presence of the Lord Is in This Place”

Scripture Lesson – Acts 2:1-21

On the day of Pentecost all the believers were meeting together in one place. Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm, and it filled the house where they were sitting. Then, what looked like flames or tongues of fire appeared and settled on each of them. And everyone present was filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in other languages, as the Holy Spirit gave them this ability. At that time there were devout Jews from every nation living in Jerusalem. When they heard the loud noise, everyone came running, and they were bewildered to hear their own languages being spoken by the believers. They were completely amazed. “How can this be?” they exclaimed. “These people are all from Galilee, and yet we hear them speaking in our own native languages! Here we are—Parthians, Medes, Elamites, people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, the province of Asia, Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, and the areas of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism), Cretans, and Arabs. And we all hear these people speaking in our own languages about the wonderful things God has done!” They stood there amazed and perplexed. “What can this mean?” they asked each other. But others in the crowd ridiculed them, saying, “They’re just drunk, that’s all!

Then Peter stepped forward with the eleven other apostles and shouted to the crowd, “Listen carefully, all of you, fellow Jews and residents of Jerusalem! Make no mistake about this. These people are not drunk, as some of you are assuming. Nine o’clock in the morning is much too early for that. No, what you see was predicted long ago by the prophet Joel:

‘In the last days,’ God says, ‘I will pour out my Spirit upon all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams. In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on my servants—men and women alike—and they will prophesy. And I will cause wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below— blood and fire and clouds of smoke. The sun will become dark, and the moon will turn blood red before that great and glorious day of the LORD arrives. But everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved.’

Anthem – “Not by Might, Nor by Power” Lloyd Larson

Message – “Something New” Rev. Skip Myers

*Hymn of Dedication – “O Spirit of the Living God” 539

*Benediction (in unison)

May the winds of the Spirit set our feet to dancing. May the fire of Pentecost fill us with holy energy. May the mighty surge of God's power turn our world upside down. Amen.
