Psalter Reading – Psalm 146:1-10 - UMH #858-59 (responsively)

L: Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord, O my soul!

P: I will praise the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God while I have being.

L: Put not your trust in princes, in mortals, in whom there is no help.

P: Their breath departs, they return to the earth; on that very day their plans perish.

L: Happy are those whose help is in the God of Jacob,

P: whose hope is in the Lord, their God,

L: who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them;

P: who keeps faith for ever; who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry.

L: The Lord sets the prisoners free;

P: the Lord opens the eyes of the blind.

L: The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;

P: the Lord loves the righteous.

L: The Lord watches over the sojourners,

P: and upholds the widow and the orphan; but the Lord brings the way of the wicked to ruin.

L: The Lord will reign for ever, your God, O Zion, from generation to generation.

All: Praise the Lord!

Hymn – My Faith Looks Up to Thee - UMH #452

Opening Prayer - (unison)

Lord in Heaven, hear our prayer as we seek to have our eyes opened. May we look to find a fresh view of the Savior. May we seek him while he may be found. May we see him clearly and follow him more closely. Help us to see his love and compassion and model those. Help to see others through the eyes of Christ. Amen.

Scripture Lesson – Mark 8:22-25 NLT

When they arrived at Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man to Jesus, and they begged him to touch the man and heal him. Jesus took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village. Then, spitting on the man's eyes, he laid his hands on him and asked, "Can you see anything now?" The man looked around. "Yes," he said, "I see people, but I can't see them very clearly. They look like trees walking around." Then Jesus placed his hands on the man's eyes again, and his eyes were opened. His sight was completely restored, and he could see everything clearly.
