Psalter Reading** – Psalm 29:1-4 - UMH #761 (responsively)

L: Ascribe to the Lord, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.

P: Ascribe to the Lord the glory of his name; worship the Lord in holy splendor.

L: The voice of the Lord is upon the waters; the God of glory thunders, the Lord, upon many waters.

All: The voice of the Lord is powerful, the voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

Hymn – O God, Our Help in Ages Past - UMH #117

Opening Prayer - (unison)

Lord in Heaven, as we approach the throne of grace this morning may our hearts be desiring to find the true meaning of worship. Every Sunday we come here, and we go through the motions. May those motions enlighten us. May they provide a deeper understanding of how we should be spontaneous and unreserved in our worship of you. Help us, even as we worship in a scripted fashion to let the Holy Spirit work in and through us to shout and say – AMEN!

Special Music -

Max Fluckinger

“Minuet in G Major from Klavier Suite in G Minor”

Johann Sebastian Bach

Recognition of Visitors, Prayer Requests, Prayers for the People, Pastoral Prayer***

Lord’s Prayer (unison)

An Affirmation – A Worship Affirmation (unison) adapted from Psalm 100

I will shout to the Lord along with all those on the Earth who worship him. We will come to worship in a joyful manner and with gladness of heart. We will come to sing praises acknowledging that the Lord is our God and that we are his people. He has made us, and we are his people like the sheep of the fields we follow the Shepherd. We will come to worship with hearts filled with thanksgiving for God’s graciousness. The Lord is truly good. Amen.

Hymn – Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise – UMH #103

Scripture Lesson – Mark 14:1-9 (NLT)

It was now two days before Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The leading priests and the teachers of religious law were still looking for an opportunity to capture Jesus secretly and kill him. “But not during the Passover celebration,” they agreed, “or the people may riot.”

Meanwhile, Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon, a man who had previously had leprosy. While he was eating, a woman came in with a beautiful alabaster jar of expensive perfume made from essence of nard. She broke open the jar and poured the perfume over his head. Some of those at the table were indignant. “Why waste such expensive perfume?” they asked. “It could have been sold for a year’s wages and the money given to the poor!” So they scolded her harshly. But Jesus replied, “Leave her alone. Why criticize her for doing such a good thing to me? You will always have the poor among you, and you can help them whenever you want to. But you will not always have me. She has done what she could and has anointed my body for burial ahead of time. I tell you the truth, wherever the Good News is preached throughout the world, this woman's deed will be remembered and discussed."

Offering Thought

Our tithes and offerings do good for those who are less fortunate. Let's be sure we are doing our fair share to see those who might be struggling lifted up beyond their struggles.

(your offering may be presented as you exit – ushers will be there to receive it)

Offering Prayer – (unison)

Please spend thirty second in silence as you lift your personal thanks to God.

Message – Questions Jesus Asked - #5 – A Question About Worship

Hymn – From All That Dwell Below the Skies - UMH #101

Benediction - (pastoral)

Exit Music (if appropriate)
